FRONT AND CENTER
HONOR SOCIETIES

The National Honor society is an organization which honors those seniors who have outstanding scholastic records and who actively participate in school enterprises.

With the nation engaged in a great war Central has encouraged and stressed scholastic development and leadership, for it is the students of today who are the foundation of tomorrow.

The organization had its beginning in 1918 when Joseph G. Masters, then principal of Central High school, drew up a constitution for a National Honor Society. The National Association of Secondary School Principals adopted his suggestions in 1921.

Every spring a committee with Mr. Fred Hill, principal, as chairman meets to elect those seniors from the upper third of the class who are best qualified for membership in the society. The number chosen is 15 per cent of the senior class.

The Junior Honor society, an organization to recognize underclassmen who have made high goals in scholarship and school activities, was founded by Mr. Masters in 1923.

Central High school maintains three chapters of Junior Honor society, Epsilon for freshmen, Delta for sophomores, and Gamma for juniors. Members elected to the society must have two A's, no grade below a B unless he is carrying 5 credits and then he is allowed one C.

This spring 167 members were elected to the Junior Honor society. In an assembly in the auditorium the members were announced and Mrs. Augusta Turpin delivered the charge.

Held in highest regard throughout the United States is the organization of National Thespians for which membership is gained only after long and hard work. Membership in this nation-wide dramatic club, chartered at Central High in 1931, is perpetual and retained by the student for the rest of his life. This organization differs from others in that it is professional and not social.

To qualify for membership in this honorary society, one must have played a lead or two minor parts in a three-act play, or a lead in six one-act plays. New members are initiated in a formal, traditional ceremony and receive a membership certificate. After his initiation, each member is entitled to subscribe to the National Thespian magazine. The membership this year exceeds that of any previous year.

This year, as in past years, the Thespians presented a one-act play, “Rendezvous,” in the Road Show. Taking part in the play were Marilyn Henderson, Larry Whelan, Rosemerry Eastlack, Marion Keller, Robert Delaplane, Norman Thomas, and Harry Alloy. The play was directed by Miss Myrna Vance Jones, sponsor of the club. Assistant director was Mrs. Josephine Tope, and student director was Rosemerry Eastlack.

Because of the war Thespians did not send a play to the National Thespian conference this year, but in past years have submitted several. Bill Newey is president of the club, and Marilyn Diehl, secretary-treasurer.

DEMOCRACY AT WORK

The Student Council, Central's mainstay of democratic student government, has been active in both community service and student organization since 1939. With the express purpose of facilitating friendly relations between the student body and the faculty through active participation in school affairs, the members of the Council have concentrated their efforts on the promotion of such events.

In addition to administering school affairs, the Council has promoted the war effort by aiding the ration board, promoting the Red Cross and Community Chest drives, and selecting and presenting a memorial plaque to the school in honor of Central's boys who have given their lives in World War II. Other activities include organizing the homeroom representatives, sponsoring dances in the gym, forming teachers' helpers and ushers bureaus, checking student activities, raising funds for the Children's Memorial Hospital, and sponsoring the annual girls' party.

Present members of the Student Council were elected by their respective classes in a school-wide election. They choose their own officers. For the first semester they were Maude Brogan, president; Norman Thomas, vice president; Mary Ann Korb, secretary; Beverly Bush, treasurer; second semester, Norman Thomas, president; Jean Roadhouse, vice president; Mary Stuht, secretary, Beverly Bush, treasurer.

The Student Council is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Irene Jensen, F. Y. Knapple, and Principal Fred Hill.

DEBATE

Under the leadership of Coach Lloyd R. Richards, the debate team completed another successful year by placing second in the National Forensic League Sweepstakes tourney for 1944.

The Benson invitational tournament was won by Central; in the Missouri-Valley free-for-all Irvin Gendler and Norman Thomas won second place; and Robert Faier, Lee Ferer, Irvin Gendler, Austin Phelps, Stanley Schack, and Norman Thomas went to the semi-finals of the Missouri-Valley Boys' tourney where the two teams tied for fourth.

Robert Cohn, Lee Ferer, Irvin Gendler, Stanley Schack, Norman Thomas, and Coach Richards went to the Wesleyan Invitational tournament. Irvin won the extemporaneous contest there.

Individual honors in the National Forensic League meet went to Lee Ferer, Irvin Gendler, Austin Phelps, and Norman Thomas for placing third in debate. Norman Thomas won first in original oratory; Austin Phelps received third in humorous declamation; Irvin Gendler placed third in extemporaneous speaking; and Robert Faier won third in memorized oratory.

Robert Faier, Lee Ferer, Irvin Gendler, Austin Phelps, Stanley Schack, and Norman Thomas were awarded letters.

Working with various departments and clubs of the school, Central's Junior Red Cross chapter this year has undertaken many important war activities.

Once a month the Junior Red Cross council met with the councils of other Omaha high schools to plan activities and projects, and chapter meetings at Central are held monthly.

The entire school participated in drives to collect puzzles, games, and jewelry to be used by servicemen in bartering with natives of the South Pacific.

Lininger Travel club and Colleens compiled scrapbooks for wounded servicemen while art classes designed and made 2,000 Easter greeting cards for army and navy hospitals. Bed jackets, utility bags, and wash cloths were made by the homemaking department. The council also supplied after school hostesses at the Red Cross chapter house and helped with the rationing program last fall.

Officers of the council, elected in an all school election, are Marilyn Henderson, president; Hugh Follmer, vice-president; Betty Caldwell, secretary; and Marilyn Diehl, treasurer. Sponsors are Miss Josephine Frisbie and Harold O. Peterson.

THE CAMEO BALL

Amidst the enthusiastic applause of over a thousand girls and spectators on the evening of April 28, Bonnie Sliger ascended the throne and was crowned Miss Central X, queen of the Cameo Ball.

The tenth annual all-girls' costume party was presented by the Student Council, and Mrs. Irene Jensen, Miss Ruth Pilling, Miss Josephine Frisbie, and Miss Elizabeth Kiewit, counselors.

Preceding the queen in the coronation march were Alice Christiansen and Jo Ann Srb, the ladies in waiting. These three girls were elected from the ten senior princesses by Central girls attending the ball. Marching as princesses were Gay Farber, Peggy Muller, Lois Ann Snyder, Mary Lou Stevens, Mary Stuht, Sally Swiler, and Beverly Ulman. Completing the court were 22 countesses, ten class officers, and ten Student Council girls.

Prior to the ceremony a colorful program and informal dance were held in the gym. Prizes, donated by girls who participated in the coronation, were awarded for the outstanding costumes.

LININGER TRAVEL CLUB

Lininger Travel, the oldest club at Central High school, was organized in 1903 and named after Henry Lininger, a noted traveler and explorer who lived in Omaha.

Though originally a girls' club whose aims were social and educational, Lininger has gone all-out for victory this year, and the committees have done war work exclusively.

Since 1942 the club has managed war stamp and bond sales at Central and has reached a $13,000 total for the past school year. Lininger members have also made scrapbooks for the soldiers, washcloths and afghans for a Kentucky hospital, collected costume jewelry for the armed forces, and other items for salvage.

Officers for the first semester were Rae Dickinson, president; Priscilla Bailey, vice president; Katherine Phelps, secretary; Peggy Jo Brainard, treasurer. Martha Redfield had charge of the finances for the war stamp and bond sales.

Officers for 1944 are Martha Redfield, president; Susie Carson, vice president; Elizabeth Fullaway, secretary; Betty Caldwell, treasurer. Belva Hawkins is war bond treasurer.

COLLEENS

Working enthusiastically for Child Saving Institute, Red Cross, Family Welfare and Service Men’s Center, Colleens have done much this year to further Central’s war effort.

The work has been divided and apportioned to various committees which meet once a week to work on their projects. They have compiled scrap books for army hospitals, furnished cakes, candy, and sandwiches for canteens, made afghans, collected stationery and jewelry for the Red Cross.

Any Central girl may become a member of Colleens which was organized in the fall of 1925 at the suggestion of Miss Jessie Towne. Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month, and average membership is 250.

This year’s officers are Rosemerry Eastlock, president; Lois Ann Snyder, vice president; Jane Weinhardt, secretary; Mary Lou Stevens, treasurer; Dorothy Heath and Joan Cahill, sergeants at arms.

Club sponsors are Miss Nell Bridenbaugh, Miss Irma Costello, Miss Grace Fawthrop, Miss Elizabeth Kiewit, Miss Virgene McBride, Miss Ruth Pilling, Miss Myrna Vance Jones, and Miss Bertha Neale.

SPORTS REVIEW

Improvement was the keynote of the 1943 football and basketball squads. A young and inexperienced football eleven surprised everyone including themselves as they notched second place in Intercity competition, quite a step from the disappointing squad of the year before. Sorensen’s aggregation lost only to South in city play, but Sioux City East and Lincoln Central can also boast of victories over the Eagles.

The same story held true for the basketball squad. With no regulars and only one letterman returning, the outlook was rather dim, but Chick Mancuso and Frank Slogr paced the team to third place in the city with seven wins and five defeats. Coach Ekfelt’s wrestlers had little trouble capturing all the mat honors. The bonebenders won the Intercity championship without a defeat and took seven individual crowns to win the state meet. Heavyweight Russ Gorman was the main threat for the Eagles, winning six and losing none.

Spring arrived, and with it came some ups and downs in the sports records. An abundance of sprinters and a fine weight man in John Schmidt made Central one of the strongest track teams in the city. The diamond squad, hampered by early rains and lack of co-ordination, didn’t present as good a record, but showed considerable promise. Coach Jim Harris’ tennis team again played a clean slate while Tom Shea and Dick Knight were boosting the golf team to a high standing.
