NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization which honors those graduating seniors who have made outstanding records and who actively participated in school enterprises during their years at Central.

The organization had its beginning in 1918 when Joseph G. Masters, former principal of Central High School, suggested that a National Honor Society for high school students be organized. A constitution was drawn up by Mr. Masters and adopted by the National Association of Secondary School Principals in 1921. This is the twenty-fifth consecutive year that Central students have been elected to the society.

This spring a faculty committee with Mr. J. Arthur Nelson, principal, as chairman met to elect those seniors from the upper third of the class who were best qualified for membership in the society. After careful consideration of each eligible student on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, the committee selected 15 per cent of the senior class for this honor.

Now nation-wide in its scope, the society has nearly three thousand chapters representing all forty-eight states, the District of Columbia, the Territory of Hawaii, the Canal Zone, and American schools in South America and China.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, Central's mainstay of democratic student government, has been active in both community service and student organization since 1939. With the express purpose of facilitating friendly relations between the student body and the faculty through active participation in school affairs, the members of the Council have concentrated their efforts on the promotion of such events.

In addition to administrating school affairs, the Council has aided reconversion by promoting the Red Cross and Community Chest drives, and by selling treasury bonds and stamps. It also has charge of the memorial plaque which is presented to the school in honor of Central's boys who have given their lives in World War II. Other activities include organizing home-room representatives, sponsoring school assemblies, forming teachers' helpers and ushers' bureaus, checking student activities, sponsoring the annual girls' party, and acting as student host at "open house". This year the Council held a meeting with the faculty to explain the work of the organization.

Present members of the Student Council were elected by the various classes in a school-wide election. They choose their own officers. For this year they were Rodney Carlson, president; Maraaret Knapple, vice-president; Joanne Noble, secretary; Donald Fox, treasurer.

The Student Council is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Irene Jensen, F. Y. Knapple, and Principal J. Arthur Nelson.

Despite the lack of a debate class during the second semester and various coaching difficulties throughout the season, the debate team completed another successful year by placing third in the National Forensic League district sweepstakes tournament for 1946.

Principal J. Arthur Nelson, with the aid of student teacher Stewart Jones, assumed the coaching duties after the departure of Mrs. Lorraine Wade. Individual honors in the National Forensic League meet went to Albert Feldman, who placed first in extemporaneous speaking; Jack Solomon, first in dramatic declamation; Patricia Burkensroad, first in oratorical declamation; Helen Peterson, second in dramatic declamation; and Arnett Bonner, third in original oratory. Arthur Lefitz, Herbert Denenberg, Steve Swartz, and Fred Scheuermann entered the debate division.

In the Lincoln invitational tournament, which was the equivalent of a statewide meet, the two Central teams received superior ratings by winning eight of their ten debates. Pat Ahern, Helen Sherman, Arthur Lefitz, Albert Feldman, and Jack Solomon composed the teams.

Pat Ahern, by virtue of her superior ratings at both the district meet in Omaha and the state meet in Lincoln, traveled to Iowa City for the regional tourney where she placed fourth.

Albert Feldman, Jack Solomon, Pat Ahern, and Helen Sherman made the trip to the Sioux City invitational tournament where Albert won the extemporaneous speaking contest and placed third in individual debate ratings and Jack Solomon received second in individual debate ratings.

Among the highest honors obtainable in high school dramatics is membership in the National Thespians. Chartered at Central in 1931 and sponsored by Miss Myrna Vance Jones, this organization affords the students membership for life.

Qualifications for joining the Thespians are one lead or two minor parts in a three act play, or a lead in six one act plays. Following the ceremonial initiation, each new member receives a membership certificate and a one year's subscription to the National Thespian magazine, "Dramatics", which is acclaimed the outstanding high school dramatic magazine.

This year the traditional Thespian one act play presented in the Road Show was "Amour", an original one word play written by the parents of Blue Carstenson. The cast included Joyce Stonebrook, Carmen McAndrews, Don Peterson, and Blue Carstenson. Among their other activities, the Thespians provide a play for the entertainment at the annual Central High Players banquet in May.

After the tragic death of former President Shirley Krajicek, on March 16, Elaine Lashinsky, secretary-treasurer, became president of National Thespians. With the membership increasing annually, this year's group of National Thespians consists of sixty-five boys and girls.

ALL GIRLS' PARTY — CAROUSEL BALL

Joanne Noble was crowned Miss Central XII, Queen of the Carousel Ball, on the evening of March 29. Wearing the traditional purple cape and carrying a bouquet of white calla lilies, carnations, and snapdragons, she received her crown and sceptre from Mrs. F. Y. Knapple, wife of the dean of boys.

The queen and her ladies-in-waiting, Dorothy Deffenbaugh, Dolores Hughes, and Roberta Ott, were chosen the night of the ball from among nine princesses elected by the girls in school. Princesses were Eunice Feldman, Betty Fesler, Margaret Knapple, Lee Taylor, and Phyllis Wohlner.

Among the other girls marching were senior girls as countesses, class officers as duchesses, freshmen girls as pages, and Student Council girls.

Preceeding the coronation a masquerade dance was held. A juke box provided music for dancing, and Student Council boys, in chef's caps and white uniforms, worked behind the coke and hot dog stand.

During a grand march, judges decided upon the best costumes and prizes were awarded to over fifty people.

The ball was sponsored by the Student Council. Mrs. Irene Jensen and Mr. F. Y. Knapple were general directors, and Miss Josephine Frisbie, Miss Elizabeth Kiewit, and Miss Ruth Pilling, girls counselors, were assistants.
Friendship for mankind, service to the community and the nation, tolerance toward all races and religions, and continuous striving toward better citizenship are the aims and purposes of the Girl Reserves, junior members of the Young Women’s Christian Association.

To fulfill these high standards, the club has participated in many activities this year. The most recent project was the collection of money for the UNRRA food fund. The $290 collected was used to buy hundreds of cans of food to be sent to the starving people of Europe. In addition, the girls stuffed cloth animals and dolls for children in the liberated countries, solicited money for the spring polio drive, and sold decal stickers as part of their school project.

In an effort to maintain cooperation and unity between the Central High Girl Reserves and the Girl Reserves of other schools, a bowling league was organized, weekly “Fun Nites” were conducted at the YWCA, and many recognition and symbol ceremonials were presented by the girls.

Officers for the past year were Virginia Petricek, president; Ellene Gans, vice-president; Lois Rohrig, secretary; Leona Humlicek, treasurer; and Rosamonde Johnson and Joan Spelic, sergeants-at-arms.

Club advisers are Miss Angeline Tauchen, Mrs. Fern McCready, Miss Betty Jane Backlund, and Miss Margaret Weymuller.

LININGER TRAVEL CLUB

The Lininger Travel Club, founded in 1903 and named for Henry Lininger, well-known Omaha traveler and explorer, is the oldest girls’ organization at Central High School.

Although the group’s activities were shifted during the war to various kinds of work for victory, including the sale of war stamps and bonds, this year Lininger has returned to its original program of lectures concerning travel experiences in other parts of the world.

However committees which roll bandages, knit afghans, and make scrapbooks for wounded soldiers in veterans’ hospitals have continued to function along with the regular tea and program committees which accomplish the social and educational aims of the organization.

Officers for the first semester were Elizabeth Fullaway, president; Betty Caldwell, vice-president; Aurel Reynolds, secretary; Janice Redfield, treasurer; Marjorie Putt and Joan Fike, sergeants-at-arms.

In 1946 Mary Fike serves as Lininger president, with Nancy Porter, vice-president; Marilyn Bergh, secretary; Joan Fike, treasurer; Susan Porter, Jacqueline Murphy, Patricia Smith and Maxine White, sergeants-at-arms.

Club sponsors are Miss Virginia Lee Pratt, Miss Dorothy Cathers, Miss Ruth Pilling, Miss Juliette Griffin, Miss May Mahoney, and Miss Martina Swenson.

SPORTS REVIEW

Sports, like the weather, are seasonal. The year 1946 was definitely not one of the better seasons for Central High athletics.

The only one of the major Eagle athletic squads to maintain their top spot in the Intercity League was Coach Vernon Ekfelt’s wrestling team. The Purple matmen successfully defended city and state championships, and won four individual state titles, Herb Reese, Dave Mackie, Lou Garrotto, and Ed Moses winning the titles.

Coach F. Y. Knapple’s football team suffered through one of the worst seasons in Central history, being held without a win until the last game of the season, with Thomas Jefferson. However, Coach Knapple developed enough material to make the Eagle team next fall a contender.

The basketball team, making their debut under new coach Tom Murphy, were able to win but one game, against Elkhorn in their opener. Lack of height and inexperience hurt the team’s chances.

Big news of the spring sports season was the resignation of J. G. (Pop) Schmidt, popular science teacher who had been Central’s track coach for over a decade. Tom Murphy and Al Hurley, another new coach back from the service, took over the track reins and turned in a respectable showing with the material they had.

The Eagle baseball team developed rapidly, with again the emphasis on building for another year.

The Eagle standards were kept high in the two minor spring sports, tennis and golf. Led by their record-breaking junior linksman, Dick Knight, the Eagle golfers lived up to its reputation of the past while the tennis team also reached new heights.

Girls’ athletics have been continually growing at Central, and during this year they have reached a new high.

Baseball, volleyball, basketball, archery, and badminton are the sports played after school in intramural competition. Tennis is the only activity entered into intercity competition. Last year Polly Robison defeated all opponents to return the singles championship to Central. The doubles team reached final competition but was defeated by North.

Although during the war there was ammunition sufficient only for boys’ rifle teams, girls’ riflery will again enter city competition.

The annual Play Day sponsored by the Women’s Athletic Association of Omaha University encourages interest in girls’ athletics. Each year representatives from local high schools are selected for their interest and ability in sports to participate in various contests.

The program of the Girls’ Athletic Association is interwoven with girls’ sports at Central. Members earn city and state letters for participation in athletics, training rules, and club activities. Picnics, hikes, dances, and skating and swimming parties were among the highlights of this year’s calendar.

Officers of the club for the past year were Patty Koldborg, president; Dolores Hughes, vice-president; Barbara Leibee, secretary; and Lois Hannibal, treasurer.
